ARTS FACULTY PROGRAMS

The Arts is a vibrant program of classroom and extracurricular opportunities for students at Centenary State High School. We are renowned for presenting concerts, exhibitions and productions of an exceptional standard. Extracurricular opportunities are many and varied and include the very successful Instrumental Music program. In this enrolment pack, you will find information about some of our programs. Many other programs do not require a nomination before commencing school, with sign ups and auditions held in the new school

In this enrolment pack, please only complete the appropriate form/s for the program/s that your student is interested in.

- Instrumental Music – for students continuing from primary school
- Instrumental Music – for students new to learning an instrument
- Choral Music – for students who are interested in joining the choir
- Piano Lessons – for students with or without previous experience
- Vocal Lessons – for students with or without previous experience

For questions about any of these programs, please contact enrolments@centenaryshs.eq.edu.au.
