

Australian Government

as at June 2014

CAREER INFORMATION FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Job Guide describes over 500 occupations and education and training requirements for each of those occupations. It also includes information on how you can plan your career, explore training pathways and provides practical advice on finding a job. For more information visit the Job Guide website (www.jobguide.education.gov.au).

myfuture is an online career service designed to help you to explore and plan your career. myfuture has a personal career exploration and decision making tool and provides information about occupations, scholarships, study and training options. For more information visit the myfuture website (www.myfuture.edu.au).

Australian Apprenticeships combine paid work with structured training to give young people nationally recognised industry qualifications. For more information visit the Australian Apprenticeships website (www.australianapprenticeships.gov.au).

The National Disability Coordination Officer (NDCO) Program aims to help people with a disability to move between school, Vocational Education and Training (VET), university and work. NDCOs can help you with information and advice about post-school options, and put you in touch with appropriate people to help you undertake further study and find suitable employment. For more information visit the NDCO website (www.education.gov.au/national-disability-coordination-officer-program).

Bullseye Posters link to up to 33 school subjects with potential jobs and provides information about the education and training levels required. For more information visit the Department of Education website (www.education.gov.au/career-bullseye-posters).

Ace Day Jobs presents videos of Australians working in jobs they are passionate about. For more information visit the Ace Day Jobs website (www.abc.net.au/acedayjobs).

Graduate Careers Australia provides information about employment and career opportunities for graduates. For more information visit the GCA website (www.graduatecareers.com.au).

Job Outlook is a careers and labour market research information site covering around 350 individual occupations. For more information visit the Job Outlook website (www.joboutlook.gov.au).

Employment services and support

Disability Employment Services can help people with disability to find and keep a job. People with Disability will normally access Disability Employment Services once they have left education or training. However, some school students in their final year of school with significant disability may be eligible to access the assistance of Disability Employment Services to transition from school to work as an Eligible School Leaver. For more information visit the JobAccess website (www.jobaccess.gov.au/jobseekers/help_available/free_expert_help_with_employment/thedisabilityemploymentservicesforjobseekersandemployees).

CAREER INFORMATION

FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Job Services Australia gives eligible job seekers increased flexibility and access to support and services. For more information visit the JSA website (www.employment.gov.au/job-services-australia-jsa).

Youth Connections can support you to complete Year 12 or an equivalent qualification if you are facing difficulties. If you have already left school, and didn't finish Year 12, Youth Connections can help you to get back into education or training. For more information visit the Youth Transitions website (www.transitions.youth.gov.au).

Fair Work Australia provides information and advice about Australia's national workplace relations system. For more information visit the Fair Work Australia website (www.fairwork.gov.au).

The Labour Market Information Portal is an online resource with comprehensive and forward-looking data on industry employment, skills-related information and links to industries and regions. SkillsInfo has information on education and training, skill shortages, workforce ageing and Information and Communication Technology skills. For more information visit the Labour Market Information Portal website (www.lmip.gov.au).

Indigenous Jobs Australia connects Indigenous Australian job seekers to employers who are searching for Indigenous employees. For more information visit the Indigenous Jobs Australia website (www.indigenousjobsaustralia.com.au).

JobAccess is a one-stop information shop for all matters relating to the employment of people with a disability. For more information visit the JobAccess website (www.jobaccess.gov.au).

The Indigenous Employment Line Provides information on Indigenous employment programs phone 1802 102.

The New Enterprise Incentive Scheme helps eligible job seekers interested in starting and running a small business. For more information visit the NEIS website (www.employment.gov.au/new-enterprise-incentive-scheme-neis).

Financial assistance

Study Assist provides information to students about Australian Government assistance for financing tertiary study. The website offers information on courses, providers, Government loan schemes, student support services and publications. For more information visit the Study Assist website (www.studyassist.gov.au).

The Enterprise Network for Young Australians (ENYA) promotes the active participation of young people in business. For more information visit the ENYA website (www.enya.org.au).

Indigenous Cadetship Support helps Indigenous students by providing money to cover living costs while studying, as well as paid work experience in the holidays or throughout the year. For more information visit the Indigenous Cadetship Support website (www.ics.deewr.gov.au).

You may be able to access support services and programs to continue your education and training, or to start work. For more information visit the Human Services website (www.humanservices.gov.au).

Training information

MySkills is Australia's Directory of Training. My Skills features information on all publicly available, nationally recognised vocational education and training in Australia. It is a Government initiative to assist individuals and employers to choose the training provider that best suits their needs. My Skills contains a range of training stories, statistical information on training providers and outcomes, and links to career and study assistance information. For more information visit the My Skills website (www.myskills.gov.au).

Open Universities Australia A flexible way to study toward a university degree off-campus. For more information visit the Open Universities website (www.open.edu.au).

Volunteering Australia provides information about a range of opportunities for volunteers. Volunteering is a great way to gain work experience in an area that you are interested in. For more information visit the Volunteering Australia website (www.volunteeringaustralia.org).